Quasi-parabolic Composition Operators on Spaces of Analytic Functions

Quasi-parabolic Composition Operators are composition operators   which look like translations on the upper half-plane. Recently a good picture of their spectral theory was obtained by the speaker on the Hardy-Hilbert space. In this talk several research directions on this issue will be presented.